

Lions Gate Quilters' Guild

June 2008

FROM YOUR PRESIDENT

Only 3 months to the Quilt Show! Hope you are having a great success with your contributions to the Show and the Boutique. Remember that only 10% of the Boutique sales goes to the Guild.

The June 24th meeting is the last meeting to register your quilt. It will also be a fun social evening, with food and coffee/tea so bring some handwork and a mug and join a table. We have some new members so if you see someone looking for a place please ask him or her to join you.

We have a new Spring Retreat Coordinator in Marg Marlow. Thank you Marg for volunteering. The Guild still needs a PROGRAM COORDINATOR. All of the speakers have been arranged for 2008 and look to be very promising but we need a person to organize projects. In the past it has been pizza boxes, nine patches and mystery quilts among others but there is a rich pool of other guilds to get fresh ideas from and anyone taking on this task will have the full support and help of the rest of the executive.

Just a friendly reminder: We have a number of people in the Guild who have mobility difficulties. They would appreciate you leaving the parking at the front of the church for them. There is lots of parking at the back via the lane and on 27th or further along Chesterfield.

See you on the 24th!

Opportunity still Knocks!

Things to Remember:

- Name Tag & Membership Card.
- Coffee Mug
- Library Books and fines
- Money for 50/50 draw and workshops

Guild meetings are held the fourth Tuesday of the month at:

St Andrews and St Stephens corner of 27th St and Chesterfield

Next Guild meeting – June 24 - 7:30pm
Next Executive meeting –Sept 4— 7:00pm

Important Notice: This newsletter is for the sole use of the members of the Lions Gate Quilters' Guild. Reproduction of any items, in whole or part, is strictly prohibited. From the Executive of the Lions Gate Quilters' Guild.

QUILTING TIPS AND TRICKS AND QUOTES

This useful tip was sent in by Renata Doerfert

A friend called me to ask if I remembered the solution that removes pencil marks from quilts. I looked it up and it might be useful to feature it again.

Make a solution that is one part water, three parts rubbing alcohol and one or two drops of Palmolive or Joy dishwashing liquid. Do not use Dawn- it may bleach out the fabric. Use a cotton swab to apply and gently scrub with a soft toothbrush. Wipe dry with a cloth. Test this before applying to your whole quilt. Hopefully this helps and remember to test, test, test. Also, many priceless, beloved antique quilts still have pencil marks on it!

This beautiful quote was sent in by Betty Clarke.

I was reading the first chapter "History" of the book "Blended Quilts" by Marsha McCloskey and Sharon Yenter, when I came across this paragraph and quote I thought you might want to share with the rest of the guild.

"Observing the habit of saving and trading precious printed cotton fabrics for a special quilt, one writer, in the book 'Artists in Aprons: Folk Art by American Women', noted that "a woman made ragged utility quilts as fast as she could so her family wouldn't freeze, and she made one as beautiful as she could so her heart wouldn't break"

Pat Gormely—Quilt Show Coordinator

ALBUM OF QUILTS 2008

September 19, 20 & 21, 2008 – Lucas Centre

Those of you who attended the May meeting must have been aware of all the show related activities taking place. The June meeting will be the last time we are together as a group before the show, so once again, there will be lots happening.

To date, 78 quilts have been registered. Deadline for registration is June 30th – no exceptions. If you cannot attend the meeting, mail your form to Elaine Fjoser. Please do not send registration forms to the Guild mailbox as they may sit there long past the deadline. We anticipate heavy action at the registration table so please cooperate by having your forms filled out accurately and completely.

Many of you picked up lawn signs but there are many more in my garage which I will have at the meeting. If you have a friend or neighbour in a strategic spot ask permission to put a sign on their property.

There has been a positive response to putting the show quilts on a disc. We do not plan to make money on this project - we just need to break even. If, for any reason, you do not wish to have your quilt photographed, please let me know and it will not be included.

Rebecca Skiffington will have the Social tickets for sale. The cost is $7. As I announced at the meeting, we plan to have the ribbons on the winning quilts that night. There will be "Members' Choice" ribbons once again. Please be sure to vote. It makes these ribbons much more meaningful.

Thankfully, your volunteer forms are finally being turned in. As Vicki has stated, there are over 300 positions to fill. We need your help. You are guaranteed to have a great time and it gives you a chance to meet visitors to the show as well as fellow members.

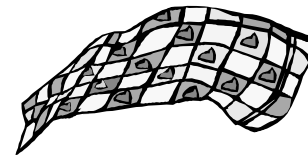

Several of you have come forward to make the trek to Maple Ridge in July to man our booth at the Ridge Meadows Quilt Show. I look forward to having some company, selling some raffle tickets and meeting lots of people.

As we have done with previous shows, we will be sending you a special "Quilt Show" newsletter in early September. It will have important information about dates and times to drop off and pick up your quilts and items for sale in the Boutique. It will also include your assigned times to work at the show.

If you have any concerns, questions or suggestions as we get closer to show time, please call me. The Quilt Show Committee always appreciates your input.

See you at the meeting,
Pat Gormely

Quilt Show Volunteer Social

September 20, 2008 6:30 pm to 8:30 pm, Lucas Center

Tickets will be available at the June meeting for those wishing to attend the Volunteer social. Join your friends and other volunteers to view our amazing quilts in a serene atmosphere, while having a drink and a few snacks.

Tickets are $7.00, and are available ONLY until September 10th. Tickets will not be available after this date, to allow for accurate catering...sorry, no exceptions!

If you wish to purchase ticket between June 25 and September 10, please contact Rebecca at 604-984-1897, or email skiffr@shaw.ca.

Rebecca Skiffington
Social Coordinator

Volunteer Coordinator Report

As we move into the summer and even closer to the show, please remember to send in your green volunteer forms. Since the forms went out two months ago, I have heard from 65 members, with one additional form that gives me the member's availability, but not the member's name or phone number! Hmmmm, Freudian slip, eh? So please find that green form in your things to do pile and send them in. By doing so, you will save me lots of time on the phone this summer.

Thanks.

This course has been especially designed to help us look at ways in which we can use drawing and designing to push ideas in a challenging way to create both three dimensional effects. Work will primarily be carried out in paper but with plenty of discussion as to how these ideas can be moved into textiles. Ideas will quickly progress by working through a series of exercises.

In other words, if you really want to attend a workshop, make sure you get your cheque in to the workshop committee either in person, by mail, or with a friend by the first night of registration.
